Chris,

Thank you so much for meeting with my colleague Deirdre Stach and myself last week regarding the ongoing situation in Libya. We really appreciate it. As discussed, we hope to request a briefing from AFRICOM on the current situation. We have attached a one pager on the work that the GNA has done to defeat ISIS and also a one pager on Haftar's war crimes. We will stay in touch as issues begin to move in the House.

Please let us know if we can get you any further information.

Thank you.

Colin, Rob, Clay and Molly,

Thank you so much for meeting with my colleague Deirdre Stach and myself Wednesday regarding the ongoing situation in Libya. We really appreciate it. As a follow up to our discussion, I am including a link to the migrant center bombing in Tajoura on July 5 which clearly shows that any allegations of the refugees being shot is specious. Additionally, turning to the US missiles found in Gharyan, if it would be helpful to speak with anyone in the GNA, we would be pleased to facilitate the conversation. Finally, I am also attaching a document which outlines international war crime allegations against Haftar.

Please let us know if we can provide any further information.

Thank you.

Craig, Matt, and Scott,

Thank you so much for meeting with my colleague Deirdre Stach and myself Wednesday regarding the ongoing situation in Libya. We have recently compiled the attached document which outlines international war crime allegations against Haftar.

Please let us know if we can provide any further information and we will stay in touch.

Thank you.

Mark,

Thank you so much for meeting with my colleague Deirdre Stach and myself Wednesday regarding the ongoing situation in Libya. We really appreciate it. As a follow up to our discussion, I am including a document with a series of quotes stating clearly how the GNA worked closely with our military and was critical to defeating ISIS. Finally, I am also attaching a document which outlines international war crime allegations against Haftar.

Please let us know if we can provide any further information and we will stay in touch.

Thank you.

Steve,

Thank you so much for meeting with my colleague Deirdre Stach and myself yesterday regarding the ongoing situation in Libya. We really appreciate it and your interest in looking at the matter more closely. As promised, we are sending some material on Haftar's war crimes, the Lieu NDAA amendment which was agreed to in the House, the GNA defeating ISIS, and an article about Egypt and UAE supplying mercenaries.

Please let us know if we can get you any further information and we will stay in touch.

Thank you.

Pat and Daniel,

Thank you so much for meeting with my colleague Deirdre Stach and myself Wednesday regarding the ongoing situation in Libya. We really appreciate it. It might also be helpful to know that Senators Graham, Barrasso, and Risch have been very interested and active on Libya. Attached, as an example, is a bipartisan letter signed by both Senators Graham and Barrasso. As promised, attached is the Lieu amendment to the House NDAA which was accepted.

Please let us know if we can provide any further information.

Thank you.
